40 or 50 families control the economies of hong kong singapore thailand the philippines and indonesia their interests range from banking to property from shipping to sugar from vice to gambling 13 of the 50 richest families in the world are in south east asia yet they are largely unknown outside confined business circles often this is because they control the press and television as well as everything else how do they do it what are their secrets and is it good news or bad for the places where they operate joe studwell explosively lifts the lid on a world of staggering secrecy and shows that the little most people know is almost entirely wrong in 1960 the gdp per capita of southeast asian countries was nearly half of that of africa by 1986 the gap had closed and today the trend is reversed with more than half of the world's poorest now living in sub-Saharan Africa. Why has Asia developed while Africa lagged? The Asian Aspiration chronicles the stories of explosive growth and changing fortunes, the leaders, events, and policy choices that lifted a billion people out of abject poverty within a single generation, the largest such shift in human history. The relevance of Asia's example comes as Africa is facing a population boom which can either lead to crisis or prosperity, and as Asia is again transforming this time out of low-cost manufacturing into hi-tech, leaving a void that is Africa's for the taking. Far from the optimistic determinism of Africa rising, this book calls for unprecedented pragmatism in the pursuit of African success.

On 9 January 1972, the mighty Queen Elizabeth, then the largest liner in the world, caught fire in Hong Kong harbor, watched by millions around the world. She burned live on television, including on Britain's children's program Blue Peter.

3 breakthrough books deliver innovative global investing strategies for today's radically new market environment. Yesterday's investment strategies won't cut it any more. This collection brings together innovative new approaches from three of this generation's most successful investors. Strategies you simply won't find elsewhere. In Buying at the Point of Maximum Pessimism, six value investing trends from China to oil to agriculture. Lauren Templeton, Capital Management's D. Scott Phillips reveals today's secret for earning consistently outsized profits in times of maximum pessimism. Recognize your long-term opportunities and pounce. Phillips identifies six powerful value investing themes for the 2010s: emerging areas of long-term growth that become even more compelling in volatile or bear markets. In What Would Ben Graham Do Now?, a new value investing playbook for a global age. Jeffrey Towson modernizes value investing for high-growth emerging markets, introducing techniques he mastered working for Prince Alwaleed bin Abdulaziz Al Saud. The Arabian Warren Buffett building on Ben Graham's classic focus on price and quality, he integrates crucial values of political access, reputation, and capabilities that are indispensable for modern global investing. Next, he presents practical investment playbooks designed to help you profitably navigate tomorrow's titanic market collisions. Finally, in The Esoteric Investor, alternative investments for global macro investors. Vishaal B. Bhuyan reveals immense new investment opportunities hidden in the coming age-wave pension crisis and today's massive demographic, economic, and regulatory shifts. Discover how to profit from reverse equity transactions, surprising commodities, and longevity risk markets. The $24 trillion market you've never heard of. From world-renowned leaders in alternative global investment, including D. Scott Phillips, Vishaal B. Bhuyan, and Jeffrey Towson.

As originally conceived by the legendary Benjamin Graham, traditional value investing involves purchasing relatively stable stocks and companies at a percentage below their intrinsic value. But this approach contains many hidden U.S.-centric assumptions that simply don't work well in today's high growth emerging markets in this book leading global value investor jeffrey towson extends and modernizes value investing helping you apply its core principles while you access tremendous opportunities available in today's fastest growing markets towson introduces the powerful value point system that grows out of his experience on the elite investing team selected by prince alwaleed the arabian warren buffett while retaining graham's relentless focus on price and quality he shows how to integrate three crucial additional forms of value into your stock assessments the value of political access in a government infused investment world the value of reputation in a world of colliding markets actors and biases and the value of capabilities in a multi local world building on these techniques towson presents a complete investment playbook for the next five years next he shows how to invest for the next twenty years successfully navigating the titanic market collisions that will batter investors who aren't prepared for them this book examines the emergence of different forms of capitalism in central eastern states in europe and mekong states within the association of southeast asian nations asean all of them but thailand have historically disappeared from the regional maps for long periods of time due to colonial or imperial rule most of them were previously members of a soviet type economy and they all joined asean or the european union in the 1990s or in the 2000s these states are characterized by a strong urge toward feelings of national sovereignty due to their experiences with colonialism and imperialism but due to the regional economic pressures and the globalization dynamic these states cannot articulate protectionist policies they are forced to open their economies in order to attract foreign direct investments this results in less regulated and more political forms of capitalism than in some more developed capitalist countries this book analyzes forms of capitalism as the arising from a combination of three conditions the legacy of the foreign occupations the national construction process of the sovereign state and lastly the dynamics of regional integration these states claims to national sovereignty and the manner in which they developed suggests a causative link between the forms of political domination that have presided over these transformations and the forms of capitalism that have resulted
